

current practice and with similar sections elsewhere in this article. It should be noted that, in any event, subject to the authority of the Board of Trustees, Towson State is not prohibited from making rules and regulations in this area.

The only other changes are in style.

Present Art. 77A, §13K(d), which requires observance and compliance with these rules and regulations, is deleted as unnecessary and as implicit in the power to adopt rules and regulations.

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE:

Article 77A, §12(g) through (g-3), which deal with tuition waivers for would-be teachers are transferred to the Session Laws. Tuition waivers have not been granted since October, 1972, except for those students receiving waivers at that time. Presumably, all students receiving waivers have or will have graduated by July 1, 1978. However, since all may not have fulfilled their service obligations, these subsections are not repealed.

Article 77A, §14L, which specifies certain conditions precedent to the University of Baltimore becoming a part of the State College system is deleted as obsolete since these conditions have been met.

Article 77A, §14N, which requires employees of the University of Baltimore to join the State Employees' Retirement System or the Teachers' Retirement System is transferred to Art. 73B, Pensions.

Article 77A, §§ 12A through 12J, which deal with the issuance of bonds by the Board of Trustees are transferred to the Session Laws.

There is no reason to codify a revenue bond authorization such as this. These statutes are seldom consulted by the public, and only infrequently by those concerned with bond transactions.

Most bond bills are found in the printed Session Laws, not in the Code.

This will not affect in any manner the power of the Board of Trustees to issue these bonds or the rights of the bond holders.

Article 77A, §§ 13 through 13J, which authorize the issuance of bonds by the Board of Trustees to finance construction of a student union and other facilities at Towson State University, are proposed for repeal as unnecessary.
